

On the Stage Wednesday, July 27th

GABBY BARRETT

Gabby has covered artists such as the Beatles, Ariana Grande, Whitney Houston, Adele, and Celine Dion, including Motown artists of the 60's and 70's. Gabby has showcased her talent to sold-out crowds across the United States. She was awarded first prize for Smokey Robinson's Motown Contest; which included a spotlight performance at the Benedum in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on New Year's Eve. Her victory also won her an interview on KDKA's, "The Today Show". When referring to Gabby's passion for performing her music, Smokey was quoted as saying, "This girl has what it takes to be a superstar!"

The Pittsburgh Tribune-Review described her as "A voice you must hear!"

Gabby has performed in over one-hundred concerts, which includes audiences of over 55,000 people at various stadiums. She has received standing ovations for her rendition of the National Anthem at football games including performing in front of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Gabby has wowed crowds at numerous venues such as concerts at the Hard Rock Cafe, Light Up Night Pittsburgh, A.J. Palumbo Center, Pitt, Carlow, Cal U Colleges, Barnes & Noble, Daytona Bike Week, Daytona Speed Week, Hilton, Bad Boys, Lakewood Church, KDKA, Wounded Warriors, Children's Hospital, Ronald McDonald House, Overly's Country Christmas, Seven Springs, Kennywood, St. Barnabas, and Simon Malls all over the country.

Gabby opened up for Toby Keith at Jamboree in the Hills and for Keith Urban in Delaware. She also has a hit song on Froggy Radio called Youngblood. She has performed at the Daytona 500, and the Rocking New Years Eve in Pittsburgh and this year's Regatta!